FROM THE DESK OF FATHER HAGE

There is no greater sign of our unity as one Catholic community than by all of us coming together as one worshipping body for our Holy Week services. Holy Week is the most important week in our Church calendar because it contains the entirety of what our faith rests upon as Catholic Christians. Holy Week is also the greatest Liturgical revelation of who Christ is. Therefore, one of the most privileged opportunities we have as Catholics to get to know more deeply Christ and His mission is by attending our Holy Week services. If you can't make all of them, make a commitment to participate in at least one. I promise you will be inspired by what you see and hear. These services will take you deeper in prayer and deeper in your personal relationship with Jesus Christ. If we pray well together, then we will stay united in mind and heart with a common vision and purpose of who we are as an evangelizing faith community.

Mary Immaculate, Saint Joan of Arc, and Saint John Newman, pray for us!

Weekly Lenten Offerings:

- Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament: Wed from 9am to 9pm at St. Mary's

- Lenten Adult Faith Formation Series: Wed at 7pm at St. Mary's

- Stations of the Cross: There will be NO Stations on Holy Thursday or Good Friday. You are encouraged to attend the Good Friday Service at 3pm at St. Joan's.

7 Last Words of Christ

Friday, March 30, 7 PM

St. Mary's

Join us at 7pm at St Mary's for our 7th annual 7 Last words of Christ service. Seven members of our faith communities will share their reflections on one of the seven phrases Jesus spoke from the cross. In between each reflection a portion of Hayden's Seven Last Words will be performed and a set of candles will be extinguished, symbolizing the diminishing light of Christ in the world on Good Friday. Reflections will be presented by Bridget Reilly and John Dudrick from St. Mary's, Katie Rowlands and Jason Tomcho from St. Joan's, Julie Barcello and Leslie Subaldo from the Colgate Newman Community, and Deacon Paul Lehmann. Jennifer Meyers will accompanist.

Holy Thursday Eucharistic Procession

Our Pastoral Councils have been working in collaboration with Colgate Newman Community on how to strengthen our relationship as communities of faith during Holy Week. The Colgate Newman Community agreed to no longer have their 10pm Holy Thursday Mass on campus in order to join us for our Holy Thursday Mass at 7pm. Some members of the Newman choir will be singing for us at the Mass. The one great idea our whole group came up with this year was to process the Blessed Sacrament from St. Mary's to Colgate's Memorial Chapel immediately following the 7pm Mass. This will be a beautiful sign of our unity as one worshipping Catholic community as we quietly and simply process our Eucharistic Lord through the streets of Hamilton to the chapel on campus. The procession will only take about half an hour. For those with mobility issues, you can drive up to campus after Mass and meet us in the chapel for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, which will take place in the campus chapel from 8:30pm to 12pm (midnight). Please consider spending some time in prayer with the students at their beautifully decorated Altar of Repose (our ARS members are helping the students decorate this beautiful Altar).

Please Offer Prayers:

For those who are ill, especially: Louise MacDonnell, Michael K. Dugan, Joan Dahlem, John Moore, Amber Buell, Brenda Thieben, Bob Gunther, David Lemery, Alex LaBrague, Nancy Cocker, Dick Cocker, Phyllis Harris, Jacob Lamb, Mike Harry, Mary Lou Sacco Crouch, James Marcellus, Mandy McCracken, Gertrude Federici, Helen Bonhotal, Nicholas Respecki, James P. St. Pat's/St. Joseph's Gala

A huge thank-you to all who worked so hard to make the evening a success! Too many names to mention, but a thanks to each of you! And a big thank you to all who came to the St. Patrick's and St. Joseph's fun(d) raising gala, participated in the raffles, sang, enjoyed dinner, and just made for a wonderful evening! The Naefs won the 50-50 raffle and proceeded to donate some of the money back to the Church. After all the bills were paid, the attendees donated about $930, which will go toward Church programs.
