St. Mary's/St. Joan's Pastoral Council Meeting

Monday, March 12 at 5:30pm at St. Mary's

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER HAGE

I have been so encouraged by the wide participation from parishioners in the Lenten Wednesday Adoration Project. I have received notes and comments from participants stating that they have found this opportunity for silent prayer in front of our Eucharistic Lord to be beautiful and life-changing. If you have not yet participated, please consider stopping in anytime between 9am and 9pm at St. Mary's to make at least a 15-minute visit with our Lord in silent prayer. Once you get a taste for this kind of prayer, you will realize its unique beauty. I would also like to draw your attention, once again, to the fact that we are hosting an evening of retreat for our parishes this Wednesday at 7pm at St. Mary's with Msgr. Yeazel as our retreat leader. I am confident that this will be well worth your time. I am also hopeful that all who attend will take something home with them that will be life-giving for your family and your relationships. Please make every effort to attend.

Lastly, I would like to formalize my announcement that I have a new housemate in the rectory. I adopted a one-year-old cat three weeks ago, and she is working out well. I named her Gracie. She is very friendly, especially to parishioners who come to visit the office during the day. It has been a joy to have a pet in the house. For you cat-lovers out there, feel free to stop by during office hours to visit with her.

Mary Immaculate and St. Joan of Arc, pray for us!
