Catholic Youth Night

The next Catholic Youth Night will take place on Monday, November 6 at 7:00 PM at Saint Mary's. All 9th through 12th graders are welcome. We will begin with pizza for dinner, get into a fun game, and then dive into some cool Catholic stuff. Bring a friend!

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER HAGE

This week we celebrate National Vocations Awareness Week. National Vocation Awareness Week (NVAW) is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promote vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations. I will personally be visiting each of our Faith Formation classes on Sunday, November 5, to share with our children my own vocation story as well as the joy of following the Lord in this life. I am grateful to Peggy and Stephanie for giving me this opportunity to be with our kids during this special week. As a heads up, we will also be gathering for our next Catholic Youth Night this Monday, November 6, at 7:00 PM. I hope and pray our teens will venture out on Monday evening for this special event.

This week, we also celebrate the fact that there are opportunities for lay people to live out their own particular ministry in our parish communities. This Sunday, Nov. 5, at 2:30 PM, our very own Katie Rowlands will be commissioned as a lay minister for St. Joan of Arc at the Cathedral in downtown Syracuse. Katie will be the coordinator of Communion to the Sick & Homebound for St. Joan of Arc parishioners. Katie has been asked to be a lector during the commissioning ceremony at the Cathedral. Also, our very own Deacon Paul will be reading the Gospel for this ceremony as well. I can't tell you how much of a tremendous honor the diocese has bestowed upon us in that out of the 125 parishes in our diocese, our people were chosen to serve in Liturgical roles for this event. I will be in attendance. If you ever feel called to discover and live out a particular ministry in our parishes, please feel free to contact me at the parish office. The diocese has many opportunities for education and formation for those interested in lay ministry.

Lastly, if you would like to sharpen your Liturgical roles in the parish such as Eucharistic Ministering, Lectoring, Ushering, or any other role at Mass, please attend a Training for Liturgical Ministers on Saturday, November 11 at 9:00 AM at St. Mary's. This event is sponsored by the Altar Rosary Society, but is open to any and all parishioners. Please contact the office for more information. Mary Immaculate and Saint Joan of Arc, pray for us!

Prayer for Veterans

Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace,

possess,

we ask you to bless the members of our armed forces.

Give them courage, hope and strength.

May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing.

Be their power and protector, leading them from darkness to light.

To you be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever.
Amen.

A Family Perspective

In today’s gospel Jesus describes the vocation of parents: “The greatest among you will be your servant.” Children take our blood, genes, strength, name, patience, and resources. A parent’s servitude begins at the moment of conception. The Lord is present in each of our acts of selfless service.

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son’s Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
