Second Collections - New Procedure

As you all know, there are scheduled second collections throughout the year. After consultation with our Finance Councils, we have decided to no longer take up the scheduled second collections as a second collection, but to encourage people to place their second collection envelopes in the first and now only collection. That way, we are still donating by way of our second collection envelopes to the scheduled giving intention on a given weekend, but are not overburdened by second collections as such. If you have any questions, please speak with Father Hage.
